Letter from the Director

We hope this finds you well! The Library has been busy since reopening in January. We are so happy to have patrons back in the building. We have been happy to work with Trustee Debbie Williams from the Village of Sauk Village to present the COVID Clinics. Many patrons have been so thankful to be able to get tested and vaccinated in town. We have stopped the COVID clinics for now but have plans to restart them should the need arise.

We have started exciting new weekly programs! We have sign language classes, basic computer classes, kid's crafts and story time! We have something for everyone! Come out and join the fun!

We have started selling license plate stickers!!! The total cost is $160.50. When it is time to renew, please keep us in mind!

Stay Well - Rosie Williams-Baig, Director
